

Informational Meeting

Monday, November 18 5:00 pm
410 Jesse Hall

The Kinder Institute on Constitutional Democracy invites applications for its new, one-year MA in Atlantic History and Politics at the University of Missouri

Kinder Institute on Constitutional Democracy
University of Missouri

This interdisciplinary MA examines the diverse societies of the Atlantic basin, including the Americas, the Caribbean, Europe, and Africa. The program includes:

- nine-hour embedded (and subsidized) study abroad at Oxford University, U.K.
- optional study abroad of race and politics at the University of Western Cape, South Africa
- immersion into the rich intellectual life of the Kinder Institute
- interdisciplinary curriculum that ranges from the early modern era to the present
- credit hours for internships and work placements

The MA can be a terminal degree or can feed into further graduate research.

More info, including application processes and admissions requirements, can be found on our website: democracy.missouri.edu/graduate/ma/ Review of applications begins on 10 January 2020. Please have interested students with questions contact Jay Sexton at sextonj@missouri.edu

