

The Kinder Institute on Constitutional Democracy Spring Break in Washington, D.C. 2023

More Info

3 credit hours semester course + week-long trip

 Kinder Institute on Constitutional Democracy
University of Missouri

Constitutional Litigation (CNST_DEM/POL_SCI 4231)

- Open to undergraduates of any major
- Taught by Prof. Haley Proctor, Visiting Fellow in Constitutional Litigation at the Kinder Institute and MU Law School
- 3 credit hours; class on campus T/Th 2-3:15pm
- Spring break in Washington, D.C. hearing oral arguments at the Supreme Court, visiting Smithsonian museums, the Library of Congress, and the National Archives
- Course explores Article III and judicial review, how constitutional litigation came about, and other aspects of the SCOTUS
- Need-based scholarships available

More info, including application process, can be found on our website:
democracy.missouri.edu/undergraduate/

Application due October 15, 2022

Applications and questions to KaneTC@missouri.edu